

Ridge St. School
Orchestra - 1937
Organized by William M. Weiss

305

Beginning Instrumental Groups

Happy, interested youngsters, developing talents previously discovered through use of the piccolo, a pre-musical instrument. Out

Groups, from left to right: Brass Class, Piano Class, Violin Class, and Woodwind Class.

Values other than music are being developed, i.e. provision for leisure time activities, physical and mental health, safety, and of course the beginning of a life-long interest.